(each a "Party" and together the "Parties")

WHEREAS:

- (A) RVC and VetCell (formerly known as The Equine Regenerative Medicine Company Limited) entered into a patent and know-how licence on 3 March 2003 (the "Licence") under which RVC licensed to VetCell certain patents and know-how in consideration of the issue to RVC of equity in VetCell and royalty payments to be paid by VetCell to RVC.
- (B) Subsequently RVC and VetCell entered into a Supplemental Deed to the Licence Agreement on even date ("Supplemental Deed") under which RVC and VetCell agreed inter alia to restating certain definitions in the Licence Agreement, amending the royalty rates and providing certain acknowledgments and declarations.
- (C) RVC and VetCell have now agreed that RVC will assign to VetCell the Patents and know-how in consideration of the payment by VetCell to RVC of cash and royalties, upon the terms and conditions set out below:

NOW IT IS HEREBY WITNESSED as follows:-

1. Definitions

- 1.1 In this Deed, the Recitals and the Schedule, the following terms shall have the following respective meanings, unless the context otherwise requires:

For the purposes of this definition, "control" shall mean direct or indirect beneficial ownership of 50% (or, outside a Party's home territory, such lesser percentage as is the maximum, permitted level of foreign investment) or more of the share capital, stock or other participating interest carrying the right to vote or to distribution of profits of that entity or person, as the case may be.

"Business Day" means a day (except for Saturday or Sunday) when the clearing banks

"Patents" means the patent applications identified in the attached Schedule and all patents and patent applications that are based upon or derive priority from the patent applications in the Schedule;

2.1 In consideration of (a) the payment by VetCell to RVC of £20,000 (twenty thousand pounds) and (b) subject to Clause 3, the payment by VetCell to RVC of the Royalties for the period up to and including 31st December 2007; RVC with full title guarantee HEREBY ASSIGNS unto VetCell:

2.1.1 all Intellectual Property Rights in the Patents;

2.1.2 the Invention and the full and exclusive benefit of it;

3. Royalties

- 3.1 Clauses 4.3 to 4.10 (inclusive) of the Licence Agreement shall continue in full force and effect.
- 3.2 For greater certainty, where VetCell licences the right to use the Patents and Know-how, to either (i) a veterinary surgeon or their equivalent, for the purpose of the application of treatment that is the subject of the Patents and Know-how, or (ii) to a person for the sole purpose of contract manufacturing, no Royalties shall be payable by VetCell to RVC.
- 3.3 For greater certainty, Royalties received by VetCell from licensees use of standardised techniques taught by VetCell to the licensee, for example, the use by a licensee of cord blood extraction techniques, where the licensee at a later date makes use of the cord blood for stem cell production, the royalty income received and any payments received, from the use of techniques to extract cord blood, shall not be subject to royalty payments. The subsequent use of the cord blood to generate stem cells under the Patents and Know-how shall be subject to the payment of royalty income.
- 3.4 Where VetCell wishes to grant a licence to any person within the European Union, the Parties shall enter into good faith discussions in relation to such licence and the royalty rate that shall be applicable within the European Union.
- 3.5 Subject to the agreement of RVC, VetCell may subtract patent expenses incurred in particular territories from Royalties payable during the first two years of trading in those territories.

4. Warranties

- 4.1 RVC warrants to VetCell that it has the full power to enter into this Deed.
- 4.2 RVC warrants to VetCell that it has not granted to any third party any right to, or licence or assignment of, or relating to the Patents and Know-how or the Invention.
- 4.3 RVC warrants to VetCell that Intellectual Property Rights in connection with the Invention and/or as claimed in the Patents and Know-how have been fully and effectively assigned to VetCell (save for the contribution made by Mr Greg McGarrell).

7. Prosecution of Patents

- 7.1 It shall be the responsibility of VetCell to prosecute the Patents and any further patent applications to be made based on the Invention or otherwise, and to pay all associated costs for the prosecution of such Patents.
